Recruitment Advertising Services

We can create an advertising campaign that promotes your brand and opportunities to a large graduate audience. Our services include:

Branded job advert on our website

Our experts can help you perfect your job advert before we list your vacancy on our graduate job site.

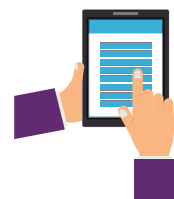

Social media campaign

We'll promote your opportunity across our social media channels which include LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

Advertising with university careers services

We can advertise your graduate job with targeted university careers services. We have partnerships with over 70 universities across the UK and Ireland.

Job posting with our affiliates and partners

Our online applications are generated by a number of sources including affiliates and syndicate partners. Your job posting will be boosted across our network.

Email marketing

We'll feature your vacancy in our graduate job newsletter.
